Charley Plummer, Sheriff Greg Ahern
& Brian Schott

Program:

Charley Plummer introduced Alameda County Sheriff Greg Ahern. Sheriff Ahern has an impressive background in law enforcement and was sworn in as our 22nd Sheriff January 2007. The department's budget of $330 Million is a challenge to manage, in providing the best law enforcement possible. Efficiency and cost reduction efforts are in place through shared resources among the Sheriff's Department and the cities of Alameda County. Radio communications are critical for coordination in multi-jurisdictional operations. The County is seeking standardization of equipment, frequencies, and procedures to make that more effective. The Department generates revenues of $100 Million by providing custody and policing services to cities, state and federal agencies. AB109 will challenge all counties as inmates are released to county custody – Alameda County anticipated this and has capacity to handle its share. The Department's weapons are a match for those criminals use. Sheriff Ahern fully supports all cities- when a call for assistance is received, response is rapid to prevent harm to the public and to officers.

What cha doin' May 19 & 20? Club member will be selling food and beverages at the Rowell Ranch Rodeo to raise money for our charitable program. Where will you be?
